Dear Colorado PRIMA Members

We are half way through the year already. If you have not registered for the August conference please make that a priority. This is a good time to include some of your risk management co-workers who may not get to many trainings.

As we look ahead make sure you have the joint training day (PRIMA & RIMS) on September 25, 2008 on your calendar. This will be the PRIMA meeting for the month. This is the third year for this joint meeting. This is shaping up to be an informative day.

I was fortunate to attend the National conference in Anaheim. This is always a great week of new knowledge and networking. Next year the conference is in Dallas. If possible start planning now to attend this great conference next year.

We are planning a construction training program for our July meeting.

Have a great summer.

Thanks,
Stephen Finley
Risk Manager
